

TOP 5 CONCERNS OF SECURITY DIRECTORS & MANAGERS

Mission to 'see first, know first and act first' not always the organization's primary mission.

1

The balancing act: increasing throughput at the gate or entry point while increasing the level of security... in a time of decreasing budgets

2

Minimizing complaints due to security checkpoint wait times

3

Keeping staff focused while avoiding malaise

4

The need for objective evidence to ensure audit peace of mind and success

5

Consistency and thoroughness of protocols

DID YOU KNOW?

As more Security Directors seek to fortify their perimeters, the $1.1B U.S. electronic access control market will continue to grow by

6.4%

Perceptics is trusted by the U.S. Government for use in many of its most sensitive access control installations.

When vehicle intelligence needs call for proven product superiority and a company that stands behind its claims, only PERCEPTICS delivers.

The industry pioneer and innovations powerhouse for three decades running, Perceptics is the preferred choice for professionals who expect practical, no-nonsense solutions to their License Plate Recognition and other vehicle identification and inspection challenges.

www.perceptics.com
info@perceptics.com

800.448.8544
Toll-Free Calling